

2017 Spring Conference and Trade Expo

AGENDA April 12-13, 2017

|                  |                    |          |  |
|------------------|--------------------|----------|--|
| 7:30-8:00 a.m.   | Front Desk         |          | Registration for attendees &amp; continental breakfast  |
| 8:00-9:30 a.m.   | Salon A/B          | 1.5 Ceu  | Welcome &amp; Keynote: Take This Job and Love It! Dr. Iwana Guess Ridgill. This hilarious motivational program focuses on symptoms and causes of job burnout and stress overload. Discover strategies for coping and changing your attitude. The presenter is Dr. Iwana Guess Ridgill from Columbia, S.C. Her clients include state and federal agencies, technical and community colleges throughout the country, medical associations and hospitals, various businesses, industries and service organizations. Dr. Ridgill is an oft-requested keynote and workshop presenter at state and national conferences and professional meetings, and specializing in topics related to motivation on the job and employee and leadership development. |
| 9:30-10:30 a.m.  | Salon A/B          | 1 Ceu    | Electronic Health Records and HIPAA Compliance. Maureen O'Connell, Therap Services. This program will provide an overview and specific applicable details of the HIPAA rules that most organizations are not aware of. We will share the importance of Risk Assessments, Policies &amp; Procedures, and Electronic Documentation. We will focus on EHR/ Electronic Health Records, service documentation, digital signature and more.  |
| 10:30-10:45 a.m. | Salon A/B          |          | Break  |
| 10:45-11:45 a.m. | Salon A/B          | 1 Ceu    | Obamacare... What Should Employers Expect? Scott Ogburn, ECM Solutions. This session will give you an update of what has changed through the first few months of President Trump's time in office. Our attention will then focus on what employers should expect to occur in 2017 and how this may impact your business future.  |
| 11:45-12:45 p.m. |                    | 1 Ceu    | Networking Luncheon &amp; Legislative Update— Susan Bowling, Kerr &amp; Company   |
| 12:45-2:15 p.m.  | Salon A/B          | 1.5 Ceu  | Are you good to go? Your End of Life Healthcare Choices. Doug Rice, SC Action Team President— Compassion &amp; Choices. The focus of this presentation will be on 1. the importance of advance directives-living wills and healthcare powers of attorney and 2. interfacing with the healthcare community and 3. our end of life options.  |
| 2:15--3:15 p.m.  | Salon A/B          | 1 Ceu    | Preventing Injurious Falls and Hospitalization in Senior Living Communities – A Team Effort. Patrick Ruppe, Fox Rehabilitation. At the end of this session, the participant should be able to understand the magnitude and importance of the current falls epidemic within the older adult population, assess fall risk for each resident and be able to refer to the adequate health care provider for examination, and analyze what a proper fall prevention program entails and be able to lead such programing within their community.   |
| 3:15-3:30 p.m.   |                    |          | Break  |
| 3:30-5:30 p.m.   | Salon A/B          | 2 ceu    | Serving Safe Food Through SC Regulation Revision Compliance, Angie Corder, Carolina Nutrition Consultants. Participants will be able to: list the SC regulation revisions; Increase understanding of what daily practices of dietary staff will require changes to ensure service of safe food; Identify who is the Food Safety Protection Manager and who is the Person in Charge at their facility; Learn tips to increase regulation compliance.  |
|                  | Total Hours | 9 |  |

2017 Spring Conference and Trade Expo

AGENDA April 12-13, 2017

|                       |                    |          |  |
|-----------------------|--------------------|----------|--|
| 7:30-8:30 a.m.        | Front Desk         |          | Continental Breakfast  |
| 8:00-9:30 a.m.        | Salon A/B          | 1.5 Ceu  | Building Bridges for Successful Dementia Care. Mary Ann Drummond, Angel Tree Consulting. This interactive session will present innovative strategies for successful dementia care. Participants will learn ways to enhance care approach, improve communication techniques, and integrate measures to help persons with dementia live their best each day.  |
| 9:00 a.m.—noon        |                    |          | Exhibitor registration &amp; set up for trade expo.   |
| 9:30-10:30 a.m.       | Salon A/B          | 1 Ceu    | Food for Thought. Kevin Bailey, Gordon Food Service. This lecture will equip dementia caregivers with greater knowledge and tools to enhance meal time and the dining experience for residents.   |
| 10:30-10:45 a.m.      |                    |          | Break  |
| 10:45-12:15           | Salon A/B          | 1.5 ceu  | Bundled Payment Experience in Multiple States: Why do you need to know what happened somewhere else? Ron Scharff, Kindred Hospital Rehabilitation Services / Rehab Care. Post-acute providers and clinicians entering Bundled Payments for Care Improvement (BPCI) and managed care arrangements have much to learn from the vastly different experiences throughout the country and across South Carolina.   |
| 12:15 a.m. –2:15 p.m. | Ballroom 2         | 2 ceu    | Lunch &amp; TRADE EXPO open   |
| 2:15--3:45 p.m.       |                    | 1 .5 Ceu | Effectively Motivating Caregivers. Christal Hartsuck, Church Mutual Insurance. This session will be taking an in-depth look at workplace accidents occurring within the healthcare/senior living industry and reasons why these accidents occur. We will then be focusing on the control measure of effectively motivating caregivers to perform their assigned job tasks in a safe manner via feedback and communication. Lastly, we will review the benefits of reducing the occurrence of workplace accidents, including improved resident care. |
| 3:45-4:00 p.m..       |                    |          | Break  |
| 4:00-5:30 p.m.        | Salon A/B          | 1.5 Ceu  | CLOSING SESSION: The Best is Yet to Come! Greg Thompson, Premier Senior Living. A great way to wrap up the spring conference! Motivational presentation, group participation. Are You Ready? What Can You Do? How Will You Do It? What's The Secret to Staying on Top of Your Game in a Saturated Customer Frenzied Market? Does Change Scare You? You've Done It Before, But Can You Do It Again? A Sure Fire Way to Stay Hungry, Ready, Willing, and Able and have Fun while You Do It.   |
| 5:30 p.m.             |                    |          | Conference concludes. Participants leave with certificates.  |
|                       | Total Hours | 9 |  |